OVERVIEW

Luna IV, a 2007 Fairline Phantom 50, stands as a refined long-range cruiser that marries comfort with dependability on the water. Offered for sale, this yacht elegantly balances spirited performance and sensible creature comforts, equally suited to short coastal runs or more ambitious, extended voyages, with a layout conceived for practical use and effortless operation.

Enter the saloon and you are greeted by an intimate seating area that flows naturally into a well-appointed galley, an arrangement that encourages convivial living while preserving a light, airy ambience for food preparation and relaxation. Every element has been positioned to support easy movement and everyday functionality.

Accommodations are arranged for up to six guests across three cabins: a Master Cabin complete with an en-suite bathroom, a Double Cabin, and a versatile Single Cabin that can be readily adapted to a double berth. A conveniently located shared bathroom serving the Double and Single cabins enhances guest comfort and privacy.

The flybridge is a true showpiece, featuring a second helm station, an outdoor dining table, abundant seating and a grill with an integrated sink, crafting an ideal setting for al-fresco meals and uninterrupted vistas. Down on the swimming platform, a telescopic gangway doubles as a crane, streamlining the launching and recovery of a tender or other gear.

With thoughtful design and dependable systems throughout, Luna IV offers secure and enjoyable cruising. Investigate yacht sales in the current boat location and embrace the chance to acquire a vessel that epitomizes elegance and seafaring adventure.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Accommodation

This exquisite yacht offers a luxurious and well-thought-out accommodation layout, ensuring both comfort and functionality for all aboard. On the flybridge, you'll find a second helm station, perfect for navigating with a panoramic view, alongside an inviting al-fresco dining area where you can enjoy meals under the open sky. The main deck is designed for both relaxation and practicality, featuring a spacious saloon for lounging, a fully equipped galley for all your culinary needs, and a helm station for seamless control of the vessel. Descending to the lower deck, the yacht boasts a master cabin, a double cabin, and a single cabin, providing ample sleeping quarters for guests. Additionally, there are two heads to ensure convenience and privacy. The crew is also well-accommodated with a dedicated crew cabin and an additional head, ensuring they have their own space to retreat to. This yacht's accommodation is meticulously designed to offer a perfect blend of luxury and functionality, making every journey a memorable experience.

Key features

This remarkable yacht is designed to impress with its array of key features that enhance both performance and comfort. It boasts an extended range, allowing for longer voyages without the need for frequent refueling, making it perfect for those who seek adventure on the open seas. The generous accommodation ensures that all guests can enjoy a spacious and comfortable stay, with ample room for relaxation and privacy. Maneuverability is a breeze with the inclusion of both bow and stern thrusters, providing precise control and ease of docking in any marina. Additionally, the yacht is equipped with a telescopic gangway that doubles as a crane, offering both convenience and versatility when boarding or handling equipment. These features combine to create a yacht that is not only luxurious but also highly functional, catering to the needs of discerning sailors.

Tender

The yacht is equipped with a Highfield tender, renowned for its durability and performance. This tender is an essential addition, providing a reliable means of transport for short trips to shore or exploring secluded areas that are inaccessible to larger vessels. Highfield tenders are known for their robust construction and lightweight design, ensuring ease of handling and excellent seaworthiness. Whether you're heading to a remote beach or navigating through a bustling marina, this tender enhances the overall versatility and enjoyment of your yachting experience.
