OVERVIEW

A study in Mediterranean balance and vigor, this 2011, 52-foot performance motor yacht pairs exhilarating pace with understated luxury. Her streamlined silhouette and generous 14-foot beam announce capability and stability, while a shallow draft of approximately 3.87 feet encourages exploration of sun-drenched coves and elegant harbors with ease.

Beneath the decks, twin Cummins diesel engines provide the muscular propulsion keen owners expect—settling into a brisk, effortless cruise near 32 knots and opening up to a top speed of 35 knots when the open sea beckons. With 449.09 gallons of fuel aboard, she has the endurance for spirited passages, and her sea-kindly running attitude preserves a composed, engaging ride. The hull and deck are fashioned from durable fiberglass/GRP, combining strength, longevity, and straightforward maintenance.

The interior evokes refined European taste, the result of a collaboration between Neo Design and Azimut Yachts. Light pours through expansive glazing, revealing a contemporary salon dressed in subtle textures and refined finishes. The layout flows naturally from comfortable seating areas to a well-placed galley, creating an effortless stage for entertaining—whether enjoying a twilight aperitif in the cockpit or a slow brunch at anchor. Private sleeping quarters are thoughtfully arranged to welcome family and guests in comfort, supported by two heads for complete onboard convenience. With 110.95 gallons of freshwater capacity, extended weekends remain relaxed and self-sufficient.

On deck the experience is sociable and intuitive. A capacious cockpit invites alfresco dining and easy conversation underway, while the foredeck offers inviting sunning spaces. An aft platform provides seamless access to the water for swimming and waterside play, turning any anchorage into a private retreat. Throughout, purposeful design decisions let you shift from spirited cruising to leisurely relaxation without missing a beat.

Currently lying in Turkey, this 2011 52-footer embodies the ideal Mediterranean weekender—equally at home carving through open water or drifting off a tranquil bay. It is, in every respect, a captivating motor yacht: a sport yacht with the spirit of an express cruiser and the poise of a true performance cruiser, crafted for those who prize style alongside capability.
