OVERVIEW

Azimut 55 is a refined flybridge motor yacht from Azimut Yachts, in production since 2017. Measuring 16.90 meters, this planing luxury cruiser pairs sporty performance with elegance, featuring a versatile flybridge, four guest cabins, and a 1.50 m draft, delivering speeds up to 31 knots. Built on a fiberglass/GRP hull and certified to CE Category B, it's suited for offshore passages up to 200 miles, making it an ideal flybridge yacht, family cruiser, and sport yacht for coastal and Mediterranean cruising. Base pricing for a new Azimut 55 starts at €1.1 million.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Azimut 55 2018

Presented as one of the most talked about premieres at the 2018 Düsseldorf boat show, the Azimut 55 captured attention at once. Its clean, geometric silhouette carries the signature of acclaimed designer Stefano Righini, while the bright, contemporary interiors are by Achille Salvagni. The atmosphere is airy and modern, elevating everyday cruising with quiet elegance.

On the flybridge, open air areas are notably generous: a U shaped settee, a lounge and a bar, with additional room for sunpads or a pair of cozy sofas. When the sun is strongest, an awning can be deployed to create welcome shade. Inside this flybridge motor yacht there is equal space and comfort. The saloon combines a relaxing lounge with a large galley, and the lower deck offers three double cabins—ideal for family trips and weekends with friends. As a luxury cruiser and family cruiser with a sporty character, it brings the ease of a modern sport yacht to everyday voyages.

For performance, the Azimut 55 Flybridge features an integrated monitoring and control system that adapts the hull across the speed range and manages draught to reduce drag, helping to lower fuel consumption. Confident, efficient and refined, it is a compelling flybridge yacht for owners who value style and simplicity.
