OVERVIEW

A 2018, 56-foot Mediterranean motor yacht, currently lying in Greece, crafted for those who value performance, comfort, and effortless elegance on the water. Her generous 16-foot beam and sturdy fiberglass-composite construction laid over a fiberglass deck give a reassuringly solid feel underfoot while the hull soaks up sea motion for a quiet, assured passage. With a shallow draft of just over 4 feet she slips into secluded anchorages and hidden coves among the islands, inviting spontaneous escapes and languid afternoons at anchor.

Her manners are spirited yet composed. Twin Volvo Penta inboard diesels deliver reliable, efficient power, settling into a comfortable 25-knot cruise and accelerating to 32 knots when open-water speed is desired. A substantial 581-gallon fuel capacity together with 158.5 gallons of fresh water provide weekender-to-coastal-cruiser range, well suited to brisk island hops or longer coastal legs.

On deck the yacht's proportions promote an easy flow between convivial lounging and secure passage-making. The cockpit is arranged for alfresco dining with shelter and shade, while the foredeck offers sun-soaked lounging and evening sunsets with the breeze. Wide side decks ensure safe, confident movement underway and the low profile presents a sleek, modern silhouette that attracts admiring glances in any marina.

Inside, airy, contemporary volumes are framed by expansive glazing that brings the sea into every living area. The salon becomes an elegant haven for morning coffee and evening conversation, flowing naturally to a well-equipped galley that supports straightforward life aboard. Below, a two-cabin, two-head layout accommodates four in refined comfort, an ideal arrangement for couples cruising with guests or a small family. Each head is thoughtfully configured for privacy and convenience, finished in materials chosen for durability and understated sophistication. A dedicated crew cabin for one provides discreet accommodation and makes ownership carefree, whether for weekend escapes or extended Mediterranean passages.

This 2018 56' strikes the ideal balance of luxury and agility: swift enough to follow good weather, comfortable enough to linger where the water is clearest, and practical enough for owner-operators who insist on high-quality construction and dependable systems. From her confident stance and capable speed to inviting living spaces and separate crew quarters, she is a turnkey choice for discerning yachtsmen seeking an escape in the Aegean and beyond. Well suited to Motor Yacht, Sport Yacht, Express Cruiser, Luxury Yacht, and Performance Cruiser categories, she carries authentic Mediterranean pedigree.
