OVERVIEW

---

Bertram's 57 is celebrated by skippers and brand loyalists as the standout ride of the past decade. Her generous beam and immense volume create plush, airy living spaces that feel like a far larger, later-model yacht. True to Bertram heritage, she delivers a superb ride, exceptional stability, an anti-roll hull, and swift, reliable performance—a luxury convertible sportfish, flybridge motor yacht built for bluewater and offshore sportfishing.

2008 Bertram 570

The 2008 Bertram 570 is a benchmark among sportfishing yachts, uniting luxury and capability in a proven convertible sportfisher platform. Praised for its solid construction and thoughtful naval design, it blends style with purpose at every turn.

Powered by a strong twin engine setup, the 570 delivers confident speed, crisp handling, and efficient range for dedicated anglers and easygoing cruising alike. The deep, well planned cockpit is a true fishing workspace, with generous tackle and cold storage, a rigging and bait prep station, and clear room to move when the bite is on.

Inside, the light filled salon welcomes you with wide windows, comfortable seating, and refined finishes. A practical, gourmet ready galley carries modern appliances and broad counters, making meal preparation simple under way. Private accommodations include serene staterooms with en suite heads, ensuring guests and crew enjoy home like comfort on passage.

Outside, the yacht's clean profile is crowned by a commanding flybridge motor yacht helm with panoramic visibility and sociable seating for hosting and watching the spread. Whether running offshore in weather or easing into a sunset cruise, the 2008 Bertram 570 delivers the smooth, stable ride the marque is known for—bluewater capable, offshore ready, and genuinely versatile.

Choose this 570 if you want performance, reliability, and understated luxury in a sportfishing yacht that fits your life today and keeps rewarding you season after season.
