DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Section name

This remarkable yacht is a unique discovery, equipped with the much-coveted Seakeeper stabilization system, making it an ideal choice for those who desire luxury and comfort on the water. With minimal engine hours, this 60 Cantius is in immaculate condition and poised for immediate exploration. Just out of an extensive maintenance period, this vessel is ready for cruising, whether you're heading north to the Great Lakes or seeking a sun-drenched getaway to the Bahamas.

The yacht recently received a full service on August 24th, ensuring all systems are in excellent condition for your assurance. Moreover, a bottom job was completed on the same day, further boosting the vessel's performance and durability. This yacht is truly set to sail, offering a perfect fusion of elegance, practicality, and state-of-the-art technology. Seize this extraordinary chance to own a yacht that merges sophistication with the latest marine advancements. All trades are considered, making it easier than ever to step aboard this exceptional vessel and embark on your next journey.

Features

This yacht represents the pinnacle of contemporary design and opulence, featuring an array of amenities that guarantee both high performance and comfort. At its core are the robust Volvo Penta IPS D11 engines, with only 325 hours logged, ensuring dependable and efficient operation on the water. The Seakeeper 9 stabilization system further enhances your voyage by reducing roll, offering a smoother and more enjoyable experience for everyone on board.

Thoughtful storage solutions include an aft storage garage, ideal for securing gear and necessities. The cockpit grill provides a charming spot for alfresco dining and socializing, while the aft station offers extra control and agility. Sun enthusiasts will appreciate the powered sunroof, which allows you to enjoy natural light with ease.

The yacht's windows are coated with ceramic tint, providing both privacy and protection from sunlight, while four underwater lights cast a captivating glow on the surrounding waters during evening outings. The SAT-TV TrackVision TV5 system ensures top-tier entertainment, keeping you connected and amused no matter where you are.

Water quality is consistently high throughout the yacht, thanks to a comprehensive water softener system, and the engine room is equipped with a dehumidifier to maintain the yacht's mechanical integrity. In the master suite, luxury is emphasized with electric blinds for effortless seclusion and a dedicated refrigerator for added convenience. This yacht exemplifies meticulous design and superior craftsmanship, poised to offer unforgettable moments on the water.
