OVERVIEW

The VG 62 013 heralds VG Yacht's first all Italian luxury power catamaran, a model conceived and built in Ancona by V.G. Shipyard. As a 62 foot motor catamaran within the multihull sector, she marries generous onboard volume with efficient seaworthiness to satisfy discerning owners. An unusually shallow draft unlocks skinny water bays and secluded moorings beyond the reach of many yachts of similar length, while the twin hulled platform retains superb balance, brisk performance and confident seakeeping. Living aboard revolves around a luminous, voluminous saloon edged by panoramic glazing that flows effortlessly into alfresco living areas, stretching from the broad cockpit aft to an expansive, elegantly appointed flybridge. Inside, refined craftsmanship, premium materials, bespoke detailing and intelligent interior planning combine to make cruising effortless and entertaining polished. From hidden coves to extended bluewater passages, the VG 62 elevates every voyage, wherever the itinerary leads.
