DETAILED DESCRIPTION

2007 Azimut 62 Fly

Motivated seller. The 2007 Azimut 62 Fly, L'Chaim, is a beautifully appointed sixty-two-foot flybridge motor yacht that unites Italian design finesse with poised performance, delivering a refined balance of luxury, comfort, and a commanding presence on the water. Her expansive flybridge invites effortless entertaining with generous seating, a wet bar, and an open-air helm—perfect for sunset cruising or welcoming guests in style—while the aft deck flows seamlessly into a bright, inviting salon where panoramic windows, rich wood finishes, and plush seating create an atmosphere of understated elegance. Below deck she offers a spacious three-stateroom layout featuring a full-beam master suite with private en suite head, a forward VIP cabin, and a twin guest stateroom, comfortably accommodating family and friends for extended cruising. The galley is fully equipped and thoughtfully positioned for both convenience and privacy, and dedicated crew quarters complete the desirable three cabins plus crew arrangement. Powered by twin Caterpillar C18 1000HP engines showing 4481 hours and supported by a Mase generator with 4400 hours, the Azimut 62 Fly delivers smooth handling and impressive cruising capability for coastal exploration and island-hopping alike. Integrated radar enhances situational awareness, teak decking in the cockpit adds warmth and sophistication, and an Opacmare davit on the flybridge simplifies tender handling, while bow and stern thrusters ensure precise low-speed maneuvering. L'Chaim presents an exceptional opportunity to own a well-regarded model celebrated for timeless styling, spacious design, and enduring Italian craftsmanship.
