OVERVIEW

Price dropped from 649k to 595k - Owner open to negotiations

This 2004 Guy Couach 2100 Open is a pristine example of luxury yachting, offering unparalleled comfort for both owner and guests. With expansive deck areas, the yacht provides ample lounging options on the aft deck, featuring plush seating, sun loungers, a dining table, and a hardtop for optional shade. The bow is a haven for relaxation, equipped with two sunbeds under a bimini for shade and a spacious forward-facing sofa perfect for enjoying sunset views. Inside, the yacht is designed for seamless movement, offering generous sofa seating in the salon and dining tables on either side. An electric retractable roof allows for natural light to flood the space. Below deck, the yacht accommodates up to 8 guests in four elegantly appointed staterooms.

1 x Owner's suite with a king-size bed

2 x Guest suites with queen-size beds

1 x Guest suite with twin bunk beds

The yacht also features a large galley equipped with full-sized appliances, including a large refrigerator, electric hob, conventional oven, microwave, mid-sized freezer, and a washer-dryer in the hallway.

At the stern, a bathing platform with a large swim ladder leads to two garages, one housing a tender and the other a jet-ski, both included in the sale.
