GENERAL DESCRIPTION

Experience the pinnacle of opulence and speed with the 1987/2012 70' Magnum Yacht by Pinin Farina, a marvel of custom craftsmanship and swift cruising. This stunning motor yacht, available for acquisition, was thoroughly rebuilt in 2012, delivering an unmatched journey for those who cherish luxury.

Magnum Marine Custom 70' Express Motor Yacht, 1987 (refitted 2012)

Hull ID #MAG70001C787

Reg #1048583

Custom 70'

Crafted by Pinin Farina, this vessel features a 17' beam and dual diesel engines with 1850HP, encased in a composite hull. Glide at 30 knots with a 1200-gallon fuel reserve and 500 gallons of fresh water. The spacious cockpit includes boarding steps on both sides, a full-width bench at the transom, and engine room access. A metal spiral staircase with Corian steps ascends to a sport bridge, equipped with an insulated cooler and reverse pocket seating. The flybridge helm boasts a cutting-edge joystick for the bow thruster, trim tabs, and Arneson drives. A large glass door leads into the upper salon, unveiling a realm of elegance.

Inside, the port side is graced with faux leather and suede sofas, while the starboard side features a full wet-bar with glass storage, white leather barstools, an ice maker, drawer refrigerators, a microwave, and a pop-up TV. The helm provides a full suite of controls and a single, large Stidd helm seat. Descend the triple-wide stairwell to the main lounge, where a massive flatscreen TV on an electric lift is recessed into the aft bulkhead. Behind it, audio/visual equipment is neatly concealed. Custom wood cabinetry houses a cigar humidor, drawer refrigerator, and wine cooler. The main bar, running through the lower lounge, leads to a spacious U-shaped seating area in the bow.
