OVERVIEW

Ferretti 780, 2009, presents itself as a refined 24 metre flybridge motor yacht that marries Italian design sensibility with relaxed, confident cruising. The generous flybridge is laid out for sunbathing and alfresco dining, while the luminous main saloon, set within sweeping glazed panels, flows effortlessly onto the aft deck to create uninterrupted indoor-outdoor living. Below decks the accommodation typically comprises four guest cabins, including a full beam owner's suite with broad hull windows, and separate crew quarters to ensure privacy. With assured performance, voluminous interior space and elegant finishes, this luxury cruising yacht is equally suited to Mediterranean passages and leisurely family escapes, making it an attractive flybridge yacht for private use or charter.
