OVERVIEW

Step aboard a vessel that blends timeless grace with robust engineering: a 1988 yacht offered for sale in the crystalline waters of Greece. Measuring 80 feet overall with a beam of 21 feet, she presents a generous, inviting plan that balances sweeping social spaces with a reassuring sense of seclusion. Built of durable aluminum, the hull and deck speak to longevity and strength, promising a secure, steady ride whether carving coastal passages or resting in a sheltered cove.

Under her decks twin MTU inboard engines give confident propulsion, allowing her to attain a maximum speed of 26 knots while settling into an efficient cruising pace of 18 knots. A draft of nearly 10 feet contributes to her composed handling and sea-keeping, qualities that will satisfy experienced mariners and those seeking a refined yacht for leisurely voyages alike.

Inside, the interior has been composed with an eye for comfort and refined living. A thoughtful layout accommodates intimate evenings as naturally as larger gatherings, offering ample seating and dining arrangements that encourage conversation and relaxation. Expansive windows suffuse the salon with natural light, creating an airy atmosphere that enhances the vessel's luxurious character and frames the ever-changing seascape.

Life on deck is equally compelling: broad areas for sunning, convivial alfresco dining, and quiet moments beneath a starlit sky make entertaining effortless. The yacht's amenities are arranged to serve every whim, ensuring time spent aboard is memorable and untroubled.

Situated amid some of the Mediterranean's most picturesque islands, this yacht grants immediate access to Greece's turquoise coves and storied harbors. With yacht sales in the current boat location flourishing, this moment presents an auspicious opportunity to claim ownership. Embrace the freedom and sophistication this 80 ft aluminum yacht offers, and let her be the portal to countless voyages and enduring memories on the open sea.
