OVERVIEW

The Explorer of the StellarCAT collection stands out as a remarkable vessel, perfectly suited for global adventures. With its impressive volume, robust metal construction, and the assurance of a Lloyds certified hull, this resilient yacht effortlessly navigates challenging waters. It boasts exceptional visibility, ensuring safety and comfort for a 25m yacht.

The AL2503 is designed with spacious living areas that impress. With a nearly 12m beam, the main deck features a grand 59m² salon that is flooded with natural light, creating an open and inviting atmosphere. The generous ceiling heights and a variety of customizable internal layouts enhance the luxurious feel of this yacht for sale.

Despite its substantial size, the AL2503 is engineered for easy handling with a minimal crew. It has been meticulously designed and tested to ensure maximum safety, stability, and comfort while at sea. Depending on the chosen engine configuration, this yacht can achieve speeds ranging from 19 to 24 knots, with impressive ranges between 1700 nm and 2700 nm. For those looking to buy a yacht with extended cruising capabilities, an optional increased fuel capacity is available, making it an ideal choice for yacht sales in the current boat location.
