OVERVIEW

The Cantieri di Pisa 80 VELOCE is presently in the construction phase and is available for yacht sale. With her carbon fiber hull and superstructure now joined, the technical installations are progressing smoothly. In just six months, she will be ready for delivery, and there is still an opportunity to select from various layout configurations and fully personalize her to your preferences.

This sleek and agile planning yacht boasts a lightweight design of only 48 tons, allowing her to cruise at an impressive speed of approximately 50 knots, with a maximum velocity reaching 60 knots, powered by her triple MAN 2000 V12 engines. Her shallow 1.3-meter draft makes her perfectly suited for exploring coastal waters.

Constructed in compliance with CE regulations and under the vigilant oversight of RINA class, this yacht represents a remarkable opportunity in the current boat location for those looking to buy a yacht. Don't miss out on this exceptional yacht for sale, a true gem in the world of yacht sales in the current boat location.
