OVERVIEW

Step aboard this magnificent 2013 model yacht, presently moored in the vibrant waters of the United Arab Emirates, and be welcomed by an atmosphere of refined elegance and thoughtful engineering. At 85 feet in length with a broad 19-foot beam, the layout affords generous, airy spaces that invite both convivial gatherings and quiet repose. The hull, fashioned from high-quality fiberglass and plastic, promises long-lasting resilience and a steady, comfortable passage, while a shallow draft of just 3.806 feet encourages exploration of secluded inlets and sun-drenched shorelines.

Beneath the graceful lines lies purposeful power: a robust MTU engine that sustains a poised cruising speed of 23 knots and a spirited top speed of 25 knots, delivering rapid, assured transit between ports of call. Whether slicing across open water or easing into a protected bay, the yacht's performance complements its luxurious appointments, marrying capability with style.

Inside, the interior unfolds in a symphony of comfort and sophistication. Rooms are arranged to optimize flow and light, finished with premium materials and meticulous attention to detail, offering plush seating and elegant dining areas designed for both intimate family moments and lively entertaining. The thoughtful spatial planning ensures every voyage feels as relaxed as a private retreat and as grand as a celebration.

The exterior deck, constructed from durable GRP, provides an idyllic stage for sunlit lounging or alfresco dining beneath starlit skies. Picture convivial evenings with cocktails as the horizon burns amber, or tranquil mornings spent watching the water glide by — the deck is crafted for memories as much as for leisure.

Offered for sale in its current boat location in the United Arab Emirates, this yacht presents a rare opportunity for those seeking a vessel that pairs luxurious living with dependable marine performance. It stands as an invitation to new adventures: a craft designed not only to transport but to elevate every moment spent at sea. Embrace the freedom of open water and the refinement of an exceptional yacht — a sophisticated home afloat that transforms every journey into an enduring experience.
