OVERVIEW

Conceived by Mauro Micheli of Officina Italiana Design, SILVER BREEZE presents a taut, sculptural silhouette—crisp geometry and poised elegance that announce her Riva lineage from every angle. Inside, she speaks of quiet refinement: soft, neutral palettes, meticulously finished details and a residential sensibility that marries the comfort of a luxury motor yacht with the athletic spirit of a sport cruiser. At sea, performance is unmistakable; she surges to 38 knots and then eases into an effortless 25 knot cruise, delivering the open yacht thrill and planing hull confidence discerning owners expect, while gyroscopic stabilizers preserve composure so the ride remains composed even at pace along the Mediterranean coastline.

Her arrangement balances privacy with sociability: four en suite cabins, including a generous full beam owner's suite, accommodate up to eight guests, while a dedicated crew of four is provided comfortable, cleverly arranged aft quarters. Life aboard flows naturally from an airy, open plan salon to expansive exterior decks designed for sun drenched lounging by day and refined entertaining by night, embodying the hallmarks of a premium luxury yacht and a sought after Mediterranean charter yacht. Presented in turnkey condition and maintained to exacting standards, SILVER BREEZE benefits from recent enhancements—a new touchscreen navigation suite, a fresh propeller and a broad programme of cosmetic and technical upgrades—that ensure she is as ready as she is reliable.

Remaining under the 24 metre load line, she offers commanding presence without the operational complexities of larger tonnage, an ideal profile for an owner operator or a nimble, high end charter program. Her toys and tenders elevate time at anchor: a Williams 385 jet tender, a Seabob F5S, paddleboards, inflatables, snorkelling sets and a luxury floating pool extend the pleasures long after the engines are lowered. For the connoisseur who seeks immediate availability, a proven charter performer and a vessel that marries pace with prestige, SILVER BREEZE is a rare offering—quintessential Riva: swift, graceful and perpetually coveted.
