Precise handling in close quarters is delivered by bow and stern thrusters, augmented by an additional third control station. A hydraulically operated platform and elegant passerelle simplify boarding and water access, and extended autonomy at anchor is provided by an onboard watermaker and inverter. Navigation is intuitive via a dedicated chart plotter, and onboard entertainment is elevated by a Yamaha music system alongside satellite TV. A generous garage fitted with twin cranes effortlessly accommodates both tender and jet ski for smooth launching and recovery.

Other details
