DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Detailed Description

PRINCESS MAELA, built by Comitti in 1962 and measuring 94 ft LOA, is a rare classic gentleman's yacht that blends pedigree and enduring character with modern comfort. Constructed in steel at the Secni shipyard in Marseille, she measures 28.8 metres and has been meticulously maintained with extensive refits, the latest completed in 2026. Presented in pristine condition with VAT paid, she offers an exceptional proposition for a discerning buyer seeking genuine heritage and lasting appeal.

Originally launched as a whaling ship, PRINCESS MAELA was transformed into an elegant luxury yacht in the 1970s at the Comitti shipyard in Como. Subsequent comprehensive refits at the Lavagna shipyard in 2004 and further significant refits in 2016, 2020, 2022 and 2026 have ensured her continued evolution while preserving the distinctive character of her original design. Stabilisation further enhances comfort on board, making her equally suited to relaxed coastal cruising and extended Mediterranean adventures.

Spread across four decks, accommodation includes four double cabins on the lower deck, each with a private en-suite bathroom, providing comfortable sleeping quarters for family and guests. The main deck saloon combines a warm, sophisticated atmosphere with dedicated lounge and dining areas. The flybridge adds an additional lounge, an enclosed TV room and a bathroom, with the option to convert the space into an extra double bed if required.

Exterior amenities include a spacious aft deck for outdoor dining and entertaining, a sundeck with a dedicated lounge, minibar and a jacuzzi installed in 2026, and a panoramic bow sunbathing area. A selection of water toys and a chase boat further enhance her versatility.

With an extensive refit history, pristine condition and VAT-paid status,

PRINCESS MAELA represents a compelling opportunity to own a yacht that balances classic maritime heritage with the comforts and practicality expected today.
