OVERVIEW

Azimut 98 Leonardo

The Azimut 98 Leonardo represents a captivating blend of the exhilaration found in open vessels and the sophistication of a mega luxury yacht. Bold and assertive, it defies conventions and redefines expectations. This yacht embodies a unique spirit, perfect for those who cherish independence. It is both dynamic and alluring—daring and innovative. The 98 Leonardo can be summed up in one word: "Avant-garde."

The expansive saloon features a retractable flat-screen television, easily viewable from various seating areas, including the four-person couch on the port side and the eight-person sofa on the starboard. While you could catch a show from the dining table, why would you when you can enjoy a breathtaking 180-degree view with the sliding door open or closed? The seamless transition between indoor and outdoor spaces is further enhanced by the bar located aft and to port, serving guests in both areas. The teak cockpit sole elegantly extends into the saloon, merging with the ivory Berber carpet, creating a harmonious flow. Coarse-fabric shades lend the saloon an outdoor patio ambiance, especially when a gentle breeze wafts in through the two-panel sunroof above the helm.
