OVERVIEW

Step aboard a vessel where refinement meets seaworthy purpose: a 2008-built yacht of commanding presence now offered for sale in France. Stretching 100 ft in length with a generous 45 ft beam, her proportions create vast, inviting spaces for both lively gatherings and tranquil repose. The hull, fashioned from high-quality fiberglass and plastic, slips through the sea with graceful assurance, while the composite deck supplies a resilient, elegant stage for sunlit lounging and alfresco entertaining.

Her lines are as much about form as function, driven by two robust Yanmar inboard engines running on diesel that deliver dependable power and a composed ride when crossing open water. Interior finishes are selected for comfort and sophistication, with a layout designed to feel like a true home afloat. Practical long-range capability is assured by a water capacity of 1,050 gallons and a fuel capacity of 1,850 gallons, enabling extended cruises and the freedom to explore distant harbors without compromise.

Positioned in France, this yacht offers direct access to the Mediterranean's scenic coastlines and vibrant ports, presenting an exceptional prospect for personal enjoyment or a discerning investment within the current yacht sales market. Picture evenings on the broad deck, friends and family gathered for sunset cocktails as the sea breeze weaves through conversations; this vessel is more than transportation, it is a setting for lasting memories.

Do not let the opportunity pass to claim this exquisite combination of style, performance, and substance. Explore the local listings and make this remarkable yacht your gateway to open-water adventures and the timeless pleasures of Mediterranean cruising.
