OVERVIEW

Born from the partnership of Alloy Yachts, Ed Dubois and Redman Whiteley Dixon, she is a four stateroom performance sailing yacht and sloop. Commissioned by a seasoned yachtsman who kept her lovingly from her 1995 delivery until 2019, when she passed to her second and current custodian, she was conceived as a swift luxury cruiser and her prowess under sail is indisputable—most recently evidenced by victory at the 2020 Millennium Cup. In 2021, MISS SILVER returned to Auckland for a stem to stern overhaul of exceptional scope. Her completely refreshed interior showcases exquisite cabinetry, new textiles and furnishings, state of the art AV/IT, and an all new galley, while externally she received a full repaint, replacement teak decks, new sails, updated helm stations, modernized control systems, and gleaming brightwork. Relunched in 2022 after this spectacular multi million dollar refit, MISS SILVER, a sailing superyacht, stands poised for blue water adventures and effortless global cruising.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Description

Forged by a collaboration between Alloy Yachts, Ed Dubois, and Redman Whitley Dixon, she is a true thoroughbred four-stateroom sloop. Built for an experienced owner, she was cherished from delivery in 1995 until 2019, when she was acquired by her second and present owner. Designed as a fast cruiser, her sailing credentials remain unquestioned, most recently underscored by victory at the 2020 Millennium Cup.

In 2021 MISS SILVER returned to Auckland for a comprehensive bow-to-stern refit. Her fully renewed interior now features exquisite joinery, new fabrics and furniture, top-of-the-range AV/IT, and a brand-new galley. Externally she was repainted, her decks were replaced, and she received new sails, helm stations, control systems, and brightwork.

Relaunched in 2022 following this stunning multi-million-dollar refit, MISS SILVER is ready for global cruising.
