Brokerage

General Description

The 12-foot AMF Alcort Puffer, built in 1981, is a classic sailboat known for its simple elegance and versatility. With a length of 12 feet, this petite vessel offers a stable and enjoyable sailing experience. It is crafted for easy navigation and boasts a roomy cockpit that can comfortably host a small crew.

Constructed by AMF Alcort, this Puffer model is celebrated for its sturdy build, making it a favored option for both beginner sailors and experienced seafarers seeking a pleasurable and straightforward sailing adventure.

Actual Condition

This package features an AMF Puffer paired with a trailer, offered by CSI on behalf of our client. Both the boat and trailer have been carefully stored, eagerly awaiting the right captain to set sail on new journeys.

Initially destined for the picturesque Taunton Great River in southeastern Massachusetts, this Puffer holds a history of dreams set afloat. However, life's changes have prompted our client to part with this charming dinghy, now ready for a new owner.

Complete with all the gear shown in the photos, this vessel is ideal for both novices and seasoned sailors looking to inject some excitement into their excursions. Don't miss the chance to craft unforgettable experiences with this delightful little gem.

The Puffer is available for purchase solely through a Bill of Sale, while the trailer comes with a title. We encourage you to present your best offers.
