OVERVIEW

Introducing Running on Waves, a splendid 64 metre, three mast barquentine crafted to deliver an unforgettable voyage. This distinguished sailing cruise vessel carries a high ocean going classification, permitting her to traverse almost any region except glacial areas during winter months, and she does so while meeting the highest safety standards. Her sweeping lines and notable speed are matched by an eco conscious design that enables access to secluded coves and intimate marinas with ease. Fitted with anchor stabilizers and boasting remarkably low fuel consumption, she stands as both an engineering triumph and a sustainable choice for extended passages. Now available for yacht sales in the current boat location, Running on Waves also brings a proven history as a charter operation, successfully accommodating large groups and special events. For those seeking a fusion of refined comfort and adventurous spirit, Running on Waves offers the ideal balance.
