OVERVIEW

Lula Tintel is a 36 foot luxury sailing yacht, conceived by André Hoek and built by Bloemsma & van Breemen, that balances refined elegance with robust performance. In recent seasons she has undergone substantial updates that have heightened her appeal while respecting her original intent as a progressive pilot cutter; her distinctive plumb bow and classic tiller steering lend an immediately recognizable silhouette that departs from more conventional lines. Below the waterline a modern arrangement pairs a deep fin keel with a spade rudder to deliver enhanced stability and agile handling. A standout characteristic of Lula Tintel is her exceptional sail area to displacement ratio, which translates into lively speed in a wide range of conditions and particularly rewarding behaviour in light airs. Since her launch in 2000 she has enjoyed extensive cruises in Northern European waters, earning acclaim for both her pace and her striking, timeless lines.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Lula Tintel

Lula Tintel is a 36 ft sailing yacht that pairs timeless refinement with exhilarating performance, penned by Andre Hoek and built by Bloemsma & van Breemen. Recently she has undergone notable upgrades that further enhance her appeal and capability. Conceived as an innovative pilot cutter, she features a distinctive plumb bow and direct, responsive tiller steering that distinguish her from more conventional designs. Beneath the waterline a modern deep fin keel combined with a spade rudder delivers optimised stability and agile manoeuvrability. Her outstanding sail area to displacement ratio yields lively speed and balanced handling across a wide range of conditions. Since her launch in 2000, Lula Tintel has proven her worth on cruises through Northern European waters, admired for both assured performance and striking aesthetics.
