OVERVIEW

Brokerage

General Description

Builder's Remarks: The Oceanis 43.3 is a magnificent representation of sophistication, comfort, and performance, designed by the acclaimed Berret Racoupeau Design Office. This yacht for sale boasts a visually striking and powerful design, paired with outstanding seaworthiness. The interior, crafted by the prestigious Nauta Design, a frontrunner in the super yacht sector, endows the Oceanis 43.3 with a unique personality that is bound to captivate.

Current Condition

The Oceanis 43.3 sustained damage during Hurricane IRMA, but structural repairs have been completed successfully, allowing the yacht to be used for power cruising around the islands.

The engine and running gear were serviced in February 2022, ensuring smooth operation and extensive travel. The yacht is equipped with a new electric panel and battery charger, though it will need navigation electronics. It is important to note that the yacht lacks a mast and rig, but the boom is included. A working tender is also part of the offering.

This yacht is ready for immediate use for power cruising and living aboard. While additional work and equipment are necessary to restore it to sailing condition, this is a rare opportunity to purchase a yacht and embark on your island journey. Don't let it slip away—submit your offer today!

Equipment

A trailer is part of this yacht sale.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Section name

The Oceanis 43.3 is a yacht that invites you to revel in its stunning design, comfort, and performance. Designed by the acclaimed Berret Racoupeau Design Office, the hull and deck layout of this vessel showcase their expertise, creating a yacht that is both visually striking and boasts exceptional sea-keeping abilities. The interior design, crafted by the prestigious Nauta Design, a leader in the super yacht industry, further accentuates the Oceanis 43.3's distinctive character.

This specific Oceanis 43.3 experienced damage during Hurricane IRMA, but structural repairs have been completed, enabling it to be used for power cruising around the islands. The engine and running gear were serviced in February 2022, ensuring the yacht operates smoothly and has been extensively traveled since. It is equipped with a new electric panel and battery charger, though it will need navigation electronics to be fully outfitted.

Importantly, the yacht lacks a mast and rig, but the boom is included. It also comes with a functional tender, making it ready for immediate use as a power cruiser and liveaboard. However, additional work and equipment will be required to convert it back into a sailing vessel.

This sale includes a trailer, offering added convenience for transport. Potential buyers should be aware of the Motors and Machinery Disclaimer, as no guarantees can be made regarding the condition of the motors, engines, or machinery. It is the buyer's responsibility to inspect and verify their actual condition.

This is a rare chance to begin your island adventure with the Oceanis 43.3. Submit your offer and set sail on a new journey.
