OVERVIEW

Step aboard the exquisite 2024 Elan Impression 43 and discover a vessel that marries contemporary yacht design with unhurried luxury, now offered for sale amid the sunlit harbors of Cyprus. At 43 feet overall with a generous 14-foot beam, this boat affords an airy, welcoming environment that balances convivial living spaces with the seafaring performance of a true cruising craft. The hull, thoughtfully fashioned from fiberglass and plastic, carries a planing configuration that promises both reliable handling and the exhilaration of smooth passage whether skirting coastal shorelines or threading into secluded coves.

Beneath deck, a dependable Yanmar diesel engine provides the trustworthy power that complements the yacht's sailing pedigree, allowing owners to pursue adventures without sacrificing comfort. The interior unfolds as a calm retreat: two well-appointed heads and abundant freshwater capacity — 124.16 gallons — ensure extended voyages remain effortless and self-contained for guests and crew alike. Light and flow are optimized throughout the layout, maximizing usable space so every hour aboard feels both intimate and expansive.

Stowage and range are thoughtfully addressed with a fuel capacity of 75.82 gallons, enabling weekend escapes or longer Mediterranean passages with confidence. The deck, crafted in high-quality GRP, is both elegant and practical, offering secure areas for lounging, alfresco dining, or simply enjoying the panoramic vistas that accompany life at anchor. This brand-new Impression 43 arrives comprehensively equipped with an array of extras that enhance livability and on-water enjoyment, making it an exceptional proposition for discerning buyers seeking a yacht in this current boat location.

Available for viewing in Cyprus, the Elan Impression 43 invites you to experience its refined craftsmanship in person. For those prepared to invest in a yacht that embodies timeless elegance, assured performance, and thoughtful comfort, this offering represents a rare opportunity to own a piece of contemporary maritime excellence and embark on the next passage in style.

This yacht is a marvel of modern sailing, offered with the Sail Ready Package that prepares you for every nautical adventure. Navigation is elevated by the Navigator pack including the Raymarine Axiom display upgraded to nine inches, while the Raymarine Axiom +9" touchscreen multifunctional navigation display with keypad, Raymarine Quantum 18" radar antenna with mast mount and the Raymarine VHF RAY63 second station in the cockpit upgraded to a fixed unit complete a state-of-the-art electronics suite. Anchoring is assured by a robust Lewmar Delta anchor on a 50-meter galvanized chain, with an electrical windlass driven by a powerful 1000W motor and an additional 95Ah battery; the anchor chain option is increased to 60m for extended range and practical guard rail exits permit easy access. Sail handling is refined with a Hasselfors mechanical backstay tensioner, a gennaker pole with deck equipment, halyard and sheets, and the convenience of a lazy bag with lazy jacks where compatible; the Harken halyard electric winch B46.2 STEAH upgrade together with a second B46.2 STA rad upgrade makes sail handling virtually effortless. The OneSails sail pack brings a dacron upgrade with a cross-cut full batten mainsail fitted with Selden sliders and an upgraded genoa with UV protection and foam luff ideally matched to the standard mast, while the sails' finish in HSXP Dark Grey underscores the yacht's sophisticated performance profile. Interior comfort is transformed by the Delux Ready - Interior package, which outfits the yacht with reading lights featuring USB charging ports, ambient lighting, an additional top-opening 60L fridge, blinds and insect screens for hatches and portlights with small hatches fitted with insect screens only, and 230V sockets in each cabin, the galley and the head. The Audio Deluxe package includes a JL MM50 system with two one-hundred-watt marine M6-770 speakers and a five-way amplifier, and the interior is further enhanced by an extra berth in the saloon, an upgraded electric toilet by Planus with fresh water flush, a battery monitor and a teak cockpit table with modular deployment and sunbed conversion. Entertainment is handled by the Delux Ready - Entertainment package which supplies a 32" TV with 230V power, a TV bracket, an antenna and connection cables. Outside, the Delux Ready - Exterior package provides a windlass control unit with chain counter, a sprayhood, a bimini top and a large bathing platform with an electric lifting system, while the cockpit benefits from a fridge and grill, ambient lighting, comfortable cushions with backrests and foredeck cushions for lounging. Climate control and power are robust, with an inverter air conditioning system rated at sixteen thousand BTU and an upgraded aft cabin air conditioning of ten thousand BTU at 230V, additional power from a 12V AGM battery of 95Ah, a bow thruster supported by two additional batteries and a battery charger, plus an additional two-hundred-liter water tank. Propulsion is upgraded to a Yanmar 4JH80 paired with a three-blade folding Flex-o-fold propeller, and convenience features include a microwave oven, cotton saloon upholstery in selectable colors and teak on cockpit seats and floor for an elegant finish. The package includes loading compulsory and export documentation, Harken pin stop jib tracks with fairleads for the genoa, a second toilet upgraded to electric with fresh water flush and sleek black steering wheels, delivering a complete, high-performance sailing yacht ready to command the horizon.
