OVERVIEW

SUNSHINE TOO 1975 Coronado 45

Meticulously cared for by a professional Captain over the past 13 years, SUNSHINE TOO is now on the market as the owner embarks on new journeys. This yacht is perfect for those interested in purchasing a vessel for living aboard or exploring the Bahamas and beyond.

The yacht features a roomy and immaculate deck, with standing rigging and sails noted to be in excellent shape. Having recently returned to its current location in Fort Pierce after a delightful time in the Keys, SUNSHINE TOO offers a spacious aft cockpit with a newer Bimini and Dodger, including a large window for optimal sail visibility. Four substantial solar panels are installed above the Bimini, providing abundant power for your travels. The stern is equipped with dinghy davits, ready for your personal dinghy addition.

Inside, this two-cabin, two-head yacht presents a luminous salon bathed in natural light, featuring a large U-shaped settee and a well-equipped galley. The forward cabin includes a V-berth and head with generous storage, while the aft cabin offers a double berth and a second head. The salon boasts an impressive headroom of 6'8", and the galley is fitted with a 4-burner propane stove with an oven, a microwave, and a double sink, offering ample storage for long journeys. The centrally located air conditioning system provides cool comfort throughout your travels.

Seize the chance to explore this remarkable yacht for sale at its current location. Arrange a visit to step aboard and experience the elegance of SUNSHINE TOO firsthand.
