OVERVIEW

Lagoon 560 (2012): A Harmonious Blend of Elegance and Performance

The Lagoon 560, crafted by the renowned designers Marc Van Peteghem and Vincent Lauriot Prevost, is a stunning 17.7m catamaran that masterfully combines cutting-edge design with exceptional performance. Equipped with twin Yanmar 110HP engines boasting only 856 hours and a 17.5Kw ONAN generator, this vessel ensures both reliability and efficiency for all your maritime adventures.

Step aboard to discover a luxurious interior that features four en-suite cabins, climate control throughout, and a fully outfitted galley complete with dual refrigerators, a dishwasher, and a deep freezer. Navigation is a breeze with the state-of-the-art Raymarine Axiom 2 Pro system and an extensive suite of electronics.

The deck is designed for versatility and ease, featuring a hydraulic platform, a teak cockpit, a Canoe Carbon boom, and HARKEN electric winches for smooth handling. With a 280L/h water maker and a robust dinghy powered by a 50HP Honda engine, this yacht is primed for exploration.

A perfect fusion of meticulous engineering and timeless sophistication, the Lagoon 560 sets a new standard in the world of sailing. Whether you are looking to buy a yacht or explore yacht sales in the current boat location, this vessel is an exceptional choice for those seeking luxury on the water.
