OVERVIEW

Lagoon Sixty 5 sailing catamaran stands as a remarkable successor to the 620 model, boasting exquisite proportions and an expanded sail area of 330m², featuring a mainsail and genoa. With its smooth maneuverability, this yacht for sale promises exceptional sailing performance, meeting the highest expectations. Designed for luxurious sunbathing, the yacht's layout offers seamless movement across its decks, thanks to low steps and broad transom platforms linked by a fixed bridge, even when lowered to sea level. This yacht sale opportunity provides a perfect blend of elegance and functionality. The flybridge serves as a versatile living area, equipped with dual helm stations, a lounging and dining space, and a bimini with glass panels for a clear view of the sails. This yacht for sales in the current boat location is a true gem for those looking to buy a yacht. Inside, the sophisticated design by Nauta Design creates a harmonious connection with nature. The open-flow layout, bathed in natural light, features beige upholstery and grey oak finishes, enhancing the catamaran's elegant ambiance. This Lagoon SIXTY 5 offers five guest cabins, ensuring ample accommodation. The adaptable front terrace, accessible from both the main saloon and the owner's suite, provides a private retreat. The seamless integration of interior and exterior spaces offers breathtaking views, making this yacht sale an irresistible opportunity for sailing enthusiasts.
