OVERVIEW

The 70' SUNREEF sailing catamaran MAVERICK presents a rare opportunity on the market, lying in Tortola, British Virgin Islands. This elegant multihull has consistently stood out as one of the Caribbean's most sought-after charter yachts, marrying refined aesthetic sensibility with true bluewater capability. Launched in 2013 and given a comprehensive refit in 2019, MAVERICK has been meticulously cared for by two highly experienced, detail-focused owners. Her prominent role in the charter arena is reflected in a respected name, loyal repeat guests, steady bookings and a polished, turnkey program. From her pristine presentation to the exceptional comfort and stability she provides under sail, every aspect has been attended to with the aim of enhancing life aboard.

For purchasers seeking a seamless entrance into the charter market, her reputation and ready-to-go setup offer compelling advantages. If retained for private use, this luxury sailing yacht is equally at home as a personal cruising catamaran, delivering generous volume, effortless performance and the relaxed elegance for which Sunreef is renowned.

Now is the moment to acquire an impressive Sunreef 70 prepared to continue her legacy—whether as a crewed charter catamaran or your own performance cruising yacht. A rare gem among luxury catamarans and a premier catamaran for sale, MAVERICK is poised for her next chapter.
