Vessel Walkthrough

Entering the salon you'll notice the massive size of this boat along with great detail and spectacular custom woodwork. Featured in beautiful African Makore wood, it gives a very warm feel throughout. To port side you will find a large U-shaped leather sofa with great storage and a custom high-gloss Hi-Lo table which accents this cozy area. Across to port is your entertainment center featuring a 47" Samsung LCD TV with a full surround sound system. There is also an oversized suede chair with an ottoman. The salon area is accented by beautiful Ralph Lauren Berber carpet.

Moving forward is the galley area, which is incredibly spacious and complimented by top shelf appliances along with great storage. This area is accented by rich parquet flooring and cream colored counters.

Continuing forward and down into the companionway to starboard is the guest stateroom with oversized over/under berths with great storage and a truly roomy feel. Forward of that is a full head and shower which is quite large and has great storage. To port, houses a guest stateroom with a double berth on bottom and a single on top along with tremendous storage and space. Slightly forward to port is the full washer and dryer area. Moving all the way forward to the master stateroom, you are in awe with the huge, beautifully appointed area featured by a walkaround oversized queen berth and incredible rich wood to set this stage. With fantastic storage and a spacious layout, this room is unbelievable. It also features a full head with shower and great storage.

Remarks

"Rodholder" was designed to travel in great comfort with tremendous range and sea keeping abilities. Her construction is overbuilt, detailed to perfection, and her lines are breathtaking. Her fishing history and abilities are unparalleled and she speaks for herself from there. This boat is ready to go anywhere NOW and is a pleasure to show. To rebuild her today would take 3 years and 6 million dollars to duplicate. Don't miss this one!
