ACCOMMODATION

4 cabins for 8 guests

2 cabins for 3 crew

Full walk around main deck well protected by the high bulwarks with varnished teak capping rails complimented with a small settee on the bow aft of the windlasses and a fixed dining table aft with seating for 8 guests.

Comfortable access to the large upper deck either via the stairway in starboard side or through the raised pilot house with the helm and seating area well protected by the custom electrically operated bimini inside the GRP arch.

Well proportioned service area with fridge and a full size bar to port aft of the guest seats.

The aft deck is equipped with loose sun-loungers and a dining table and a fixed teak covered Jacuzzi.

The contemporary designed salon is well lit from the large side windows and there is good contrast between white lacquered panels and ceilings and the dark parquet floor.

Upon entering from the aft deck there is a lounge area followed by a slightly separated dining area.

Ahead of the salon there is access to the well equipped galley to port with a door to the side deck for easy provisioning and crew access.

To starboard there is access to the raised pilot house and the stairway down to the guest cabins and all forward one enters the light VIP cabin, currently being used as a TV lounge, with en-suite facilities.

The master cabin is well positioned amidships and the oversized windows provide excellent light and views. The full beam bathroom aft of the king size bed is ideally designed with 'his' and 'hers' separated by the large shower. Apart from the side cabinets with the large desk tops the master cabin has excellent walk-in wardrobes that are normally not found on a yacht of this size.

Further forward to port and starboard are the two double guest cabins with en-suite facilities.

The engine room is well laid out with good accessibility to all equipment and moving aft there is access to the tender garage with a customized easy launch system for the Williams Tender.
