SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

Andreita has been prepared to go to sea for serious offshore cruising. Please note that like many Columbias built, she has a Crealock design built in California with all hand layup procedures and thus there has never been any blistering. Her newly rebuilt Yanmar 3Jh2-3 Diesel, large screen Furuno GPS, 12' RIB Zodiac tender, wind generator and even a sewing machine are part of an impressive offshore inventory. Currently in Cap Cana Marina in the Dominican Republic preparing to sail to Punta Gorda, Florida.

*PHRF Rating of 156.0
