SPECIFICATIONS

Overview

The FEELING 36 can be ordered with either two or three cabins. With a reputation for excellent quality and an interior that has fit and finish not readily found with production builders, the FEELING 36 is a unique product.

The lifting keel feature combined with good sailing performance are two additional reasons why FEELING 36s are compelling alternatives to other brands.

DETAILED INFORMATION

Manufacturer Provided Description

A specially designed drop-keel boat for greater choice of where you can sail. Also available in quillard version. Light and roomy enjoy life on board to its full. Power and stability to guarantee pleasant sailing. The result of 100 years of traditional boat-building experience.

A great hull form, wide side decks and excellent performance undersail, the FEELING 36 will not disappoint you. These well made boats are a cut above the competitors because they are traditionally built with frames and stringers with minimal use of internal liners and ALL bulkheads and furniture are bonded to the hull and deck.
