DETAILED INFORMATION

Key Features

The Tiara 4100 Open is a versatile express cruiser that can be seriously fished and comfortably cruised. High Cotton is set up to offer the enjoyments of boating for the whole family. If you're in the market for a 40-plus express cruiser, and fishing as well as cruising is at the top of your priority list, then High Cotton the boat you need. She features legendary Tiara big boat toughness, power, and style combined with seaworthiness that is second to none.

The helm offers a double wide seat as well as an L-lounge seat to port that will easily accommodate 4-5 people. Just aft of the helm is a convenient wet bar with sink and icemaker beneath and there's a great cooler under the seat. An access hatch to the engine room in the sole is convenient for quick sight checks while underway.

With her 43'6" length overall and solid deep vee hull design, the Tiara 4100 Open is a statement in style and performance as she glides across open water. The express style hull coupled with the sloping sheer lines give the 4100 a head turning profile that is distinctive from other boats out on the water and highly regarded by knowledgeable boatmen. The foredeck is large providing ample room to move about and the deck hatches are low in profile, high in quality, and induce light into the cabin interior. The cockpit features a huge removable fish box with macerator for all your catches, a livewell, floor storage or secondary livewell, tackle center, bait prep center, and freezer. There's also a convertible rear bench seat for evening cruises, and a large transom door for easy access to the swim platform. The 4100 Open is a seaworthy cruiser that will safely take you to your destination in comfort and style. With Tiara's reputation for producing quality boats, the 4100 Open is an excellent choice for those looking for quality, and versatility in the 40-plus express class.

Manufacturer Provided Description

The Tiara 4100 Open has all the amenities of home - the salon, stateroom, and head exceed expectations in both stowage and headroom. Whether sport fishing for a weekend or taking a week-long vacation, the 84 square feet of lounge space aboard this yacht provide the room and the storage needed for relaxing in the sun or pulling in the big trophy. The cockpit is easily accessible, and with the raised bridge deck, there is 5 feet 5 inches of head room in the engine compartment. The space is well lit with overhead fluorescent lights, and the neatly tooled headliner has molded-in exhaust blower ducts and illuminated cableways.

Deck

At the bow there's an integrated bow pulpit with roller and windlass for easy anchoring and security. There's a large anchor locker forward for line or chain, and the entire foredeck is protected by high bow rails with non-skid walkways. The foredeck is large providing ample room to move about and the deck hatches are low in profile, high in quality, and induce light into the cabin interior. The windshield is well built and provides for good lines of sight while navigating. There's even a windshield vent to keep things cool while underway. The integral hardtop affords great protection from the elements and adds to the seaworthiness of this craft. There are even ventilation hatches in the top to cool the bridge deck while underway.

Below Deck

The master berth is forward and placed diagonally for additional leg room and comfort with storage beneath. The head is full sized and features a vanity and shower stall. The salon seating is great for entertaining and it converts into an upper single and lower double berth when staying aboard. The galley is opposite the settee and features great storage and convenience when preparing food for a hungry crew or just snacks for some fellow boaters. Even the refrigerator/freezer is oversized.

Cockpit / Engine Room

The cockpit features a huge removable fish box with macerator for all your catches, a livewell, floor storage or secondary livewell, tackle center, bait prep center, and freezer. There's also a convertible rear bench seat for evening cruises, and a large transom door for easy access to the swim platform. Forward in the cockpit is an engine room access door. The engine room is well laid out with all servicing and maintenance being performed easily and all components being accessible.
