DETAILED INFORMATION

Key Features

The unmistakable style of a New England lobster boat finds a natural evolution in a design which uses this concept as an exclusive approach to pleasure boating: The Austin Parker 52 and 54 feature innovative solutions, such as the stern with hydraulic opening system, the large cockpit running from the bathing platform to the Salon, and the hangar for the tender. The curvy yet distinctive lines from Fulvio di Simoni convey the craft's quality and style at a glance. The propulsion system and the perfectly balanced lines of the hull deliver a top speed of 34 knots and a cruising speed of 28 knots. The elegant hard top creates comfortable roomy accommodation enclosed by a glazed screen with sliding door, which separates this area from the cockpit.

Inside, below deck, there are 3 comfortable cabins served by 2 bathrooms, a separate galley and accommodation for the crew back aft. The vessel is impeccably fitted out with fine wood finished with open-pore water-based paints for the walls and wide brushed bevelled planks for the floor, choice quality fabrics and full grain leather. The excellent design of its interiors places allows for exceptionally large cabins for a vessel of this size.

The Owners cabin is elegant and leather finished, with the bed in asymmetric position and a large bathroom with shower. The furniture provides every kind of comfort, hi-fi stereo, video, reading lights, wardrobes and drawers to keep everything in order and perfectly organized. The wide window structure, protected by curtains for darkness, gives a lightening background when needed.

Guests can have their own privacy at their disposal two comfortable cabins with two beds, wardrobes, and classical accessories. There is a bathroom with a big shower that connects the two cabins. The furniture quality and the detailed accessories are constant elements of the project and are presented on board in every detail: elegance and care for particulars, are mixing with the modern design, giving the craft an everlasting fashionable look.
