DETAILED INFORMATION

Description

This 34' feet vessel from 1971 Marine Trading (Tradewinds) is the ultimate party boat which has just been totally redone to the highest levels. Easy to operate and economical to run Chug-A-Lug II is decorated in an African Safari style and when the side curtains and aft curtains are rolled up the entire boat becomes an open launch allowing the occupants to enjoy the great outdoors from the comfort of this stunning interior. You will be the envy of all as you enjoy the waterways of south Florida from this extremely fun boat. A solid vessel with low engine hours Ford Lehman diesel. This unique boat has been re-created to give you the ideal party boat...FIESTA!

Vessel Walkthrough

You step into an open cockpit aft which has a transom door connecting to a teak swim platform, forward of this you enter through a zippered stratoglass door which can be rolled up out of the way and you step into a cabin which is reminiscent of an African Safari. The lower helm is to starboard and features an opening door to the walk around deck to starboard to facilitate docking and line handling. To port is the galley which features two refrigerated wine coolers with wine glass hangers over head of a highly gloss finished teak countertop, forward to port is the head and to starboard is a storage locker with electrical panel and stereo system. Further forward is the V-berth with high end tropical upholstery.

Above the main cabin is the fly bridge with Bimini top.

The foredeck features a stainless steel bow rail, teak bowsprit with stainless steel plow anchor with stainless steel chain and anchor rode.
