2. DESCRIPTION, ACCOMODATION AND LAYOUT

GENERAL:

The general theme of NB58 interior is based on Proteksan-Turquoise's latest 2013 delivery, the 50.5m ILERIA. Reference can be made to ILERIA for overall interior and exterior quality standards in fit, finish, décor and allowances etc.

PROTEKSAN-TURQUOISE NB 58 accommodates 12 or up to 14 guests in six staterooms (master, two VIP and 3 guest suites) plus an additional children's or security cabin on the bridge deck. She sleeps 8 crew in four double cabins, and two in the double Captain's cabin, for a total of ten.

ACCOMODATIONS:

LOWER DECK:

All the way forward is the crew accommodation. There are four upper and lower berth crew cabins. Two crew cabins are en suite with stall showers and the other 2 share a very large bathroom with stall shower. Further aft to starboard is the crew mess with small galley, with laundry opposite to port.

The lower guest accommodation area is further aft, accessed from the main deck stair case in the lobby.

There are two identical twin bedded guest suites forward, each with en suite bathroom with sink, WC, bidet and stall showers.

Further aft are two identical VIP queen guest suites, each with en suite bathroom with his and hers sinks, stall shower, WC and bidet.

The engine room is further aft with access to the garage where the tender (owner supply) and two Wave Runners (owners supply) are stored and launched through a port side hull door. There is access out from the garage to the swim platform.

MAIN DECK:

The full beam owner's bathroom is all the way forward with stall shower, vanities or make up desks port and starboard, central tub, his and hers sinks, and WC and bidet in a separate room. There are his and her dressing rooms both sides, aft of the bathroom, and ahead of the master suite.

The full beam owner's suite is further aft with forward facing king sized berth and entertainment center forward. There is another walk in dressing room aft to port.

The owner's office is further aft to starboard just ahead of the foyer which gives access to the main deck lobby and day toilet located on the main deck to starboard.

The galley is on the main deck to port with a pantry aft, servicing the dining room which is located forward of the main salon and open to it. The pantry can also access the main deck lobby. In the dining room, the rectangular dining table seats 12 and is serviced from either side and aft by four low buffets and storage cabinets. The main salon, presently designed to be open to the dining room is further aft, complete with sofas, easy chairs, and coffee and side tables.

Out from the main salon to the open aft deck, there is casual seating aft around a coffee table with chairs inboard and a sofa aft. There are staircases down port and starboard sides to the extended swim platform. There is access up to the bridge deck to port and down to the tender garage on the starboard side.

BRIDGE DECK:

Forward there is storage on the bow for the 4.2m rescue tender. There is a U shaped seating area, just forward of the wheelhouse. The wheelhouse has vertical windows for excellent visibility, and a settee to starboard against the aft bulkhead, with a small table. The ships office and radio room is opposite to port.

The Captain's cabin is on the port side with a double berth and en suite bathroom, two hanging lockers and a stall shower and WC.

Opposite the Captain's cabin across the hallway to starboard is a queen sized guest cabin with en suite with stall shower and WC.

There is a pantry aft of the Captain's cabin with dumbwaiter and stairs giving access to the main deck pantry.

There is access to the main deck via the main circular staircase amidships.

Outboard to starboard of the lobby is a seventh stateroom, with upper and lower berths, ideal for children or staff, with en suite bathroom with WC, sink and stall shower.

Further aft there is a bridge deck day toilet with WC and bidet.

The sky lounge on this upper deck has a couch outboard to port, another against the forward bulkhead and easy chairs around a table. There is a TV on the starboard side and a small wet bar aft to port.

The outside dining deck behind the upper deck lounge has an oval shaped teak dining table for 12 with buffet servers nearby and U shaped seating all the way aft in the port and starboard corners.

There is access down to the main deck on the port side and up to the sun deck to starboard.

SUNDECK:

The teak covered sundeck is spectacular with 6 chaise lounges forward and further aft a forward and aft facing bar under a shaded (or open) hardtop. A Jacuzzi is further aft with sun pads around.

13. COMMENTS AND NOTEWORTHY FEATURES AT A GLANCE

Rarely does a brand new yacht of this caliber come on the market with such a short delivery time (18-20 months). NB58, with her full displacement volume, under 500 GT, striking modern profile and six staterooms (with a seventh children's or staff cabin) in a lovely interior, is a unique offering. She is under construction already with hull and superstructure complete, and will be delivered quickly, built to the very highest European standards. Her finishes and engineering are quantifiable from her bigger sister ILERIA and will be as good as any northern European shipyard can contemplate.
