Accommodations

Step down from the cockpit to a spacious saloon with two large comfortable seating areas perfect for entertaining. To starboard at the forward end of the saloon is an L-shaped settee surrounding a coffee table. The settee pulls out to make a double berth. Opposite the starboard settee on the port side are gorgeous cabinets housing a large flat screen TV covered by louvered doors when not being viewed. Just aft of the TV cabinet is a folding dining table adjacent to the galley just aft of the saloon. Opposite the dining area on the starboard side and just aft of the starboard settee are cabinets used as a bar and liquor locker. This is also at the entrance to the captain's quarters just aft on the starboard side.

Forward of the saloon short steps lead to the VIP quarters. To port is the forward head with separate shower. Just forward to port is the VIP double berth which can be pulled out to make a queen berth. Opposite are a vanity, drawers and storage lockers.

Aft of the saloon to starboard are the captain's quarters. This includes a perfect sea berth that can be pulled out to make a double, washer/dryer, nav station and starboard engine access.

Aft of the saloon to port is the galley. Outboard are the stove, refrigerators, freezer and ample solid marble counter space. Opposite, to the center of the boat is a double stainless steel sink, additional counter space and engine access below.

The aft end of the galley leads to the owner's aft stateroom. The stateroom features a king berth athwartships which can pull out to make it fore and aft. To starboard is the owner's head with separate shower.
