Vessel Walk Through

As you enter the main cabin through the companionway, to starboard is the teak-trimmed galley with a 3 burner electric stove, double SS sinks freezer/refrigerator and microwave oven. To port is a curved settee, electric panel and entertainment center with a flat screen TV, DVD player and Pioneer stereo system. Moving forward to starboard, you will find the spacious main salon with a u-shaped settee that converts to a berth. To port is a large guest head complemented with a vanity, storage and full shower. As you continue forward, to port is a guest stateroom (currently being used for storage) with twin bunks. The master stateroom is forward with a true queen size island berth, plenty of ventilation and a private ensuite head.

Hull and Deck

The deck layout provides wide side-decks with stainless railings all around with side gates for confident access. The stern has a SS ladder, swim platform and gunnel door for easy boarding from the water. The cockpit feels huge with an almost 15 foot wide beam, padded teak gunnels, and plenty of room for fishing or entertaining. The spacious helm station to starboard has seating for two with a helm passenger bench to port with seating for two more. At the helm you have full control of the powerful twin Detroit Diesels, engine gauges to monitor the mechanical systems, 4" Ritchie compass, Garman 4212 GPSmap and Autohelm ST7000 auto pilot for navigation.
