Overview

"WANDERLUST" is a very lightly used, one owner yacht that is beautifully equipped for New England Cruising. She has a Selden in-mast furling Doyle mainsail and Furlex roller-furler with 110% Doyle genoa, a dodger and bimini, to name just a few of her extensive list of amenities.

"WANDERLUST" is in turn key condition. Pack your sea bag and step aboard for your sailing vacation!

The Hunter 31 is a capable, cruising, weekender with all the comforts of home in a compact and affordable package. On the water, the Hunter 31's outstanding sailing characteristics are combined with unmatched ease of handling features to make it fun and easy to maneuver in any situation. The modern Glenn Henderson hull shape is easily driven for impressive performance in lighter winds. A high ballast ratio and low aspect sailplan keep the 31 on her feet in heavy air, while a special bow shape slices through choppy seas for a smoother and more comfortable ride.
