DETAILED INFORMATION

Overview

Four Play V is a great example of a captain maintained 62 Azimut Evolution. This three stateroom layout with crew quarters makes for a great family cruiser, and the plentiful exterior space with additional custom seating on the fly bridge makes it perfect for entertaining. She is powered by twin MTU engines at 910 hp apiece and with her bow and stern thruster she is a dream to dock.

Main Salon

Entering from the aft deck in to the main salon you will first notice her high gloss cherry wood interior which show beautifully. Her salon offers plenty of seating on two couches one port and one starboard, and when paired with her Bose Lifestyle stereo system, you will immediately recognize this space as perfect for entertaining or relaxing. The large U-shaped couch on port side provides for viewing of the built in flat screen TV and also offers a oval burled wood coffee table.

Galley and Dinette

Moving forward from the main salon sits the dinette starboard and galley port. As you take the step up from the main salon you will notice the cherry and holly floors.

The dinette provides a large oval burled wood table with a U-shaped leather settee providing seating for six. This area is surrounded by large windows making it a very inviting space to enjoy a meal while taking in your surroundings. The galley provides all of the amenities necessary to put together the perfect meal. Her galley is equipped with overhead storage, drawers and cabinets, composite countertops, and abundant natural light.

- GE Profile microwave/convection oven
- Schott Ceran 4 burner glass stove top
- Refrigerator/Freezer
- Molded in sink with retractable hose faucet
- Service bar

· Ice maker

Aft Deck

The aft deck which is finished with a teak sole can be accessed to port or starboard by the dock or from the swim platform. There is a settee with teak table accommodating 6 with a great view of the 26 inch flat panel TV mounted on the overhang of the fly bridge. The aft deck provides access to the engine room and crew quarters.

Accommodations

Master Stateroom

Located amidship the master is a space that far exceeds many in her class. This full beam master has three large windows on both the port and starboard side to allow for ample natural light, a queen size island berth, makeup vanity, many storage options in the room, plus a walk in closet with room for both hanging and built in drawers, and a 19" flat panel wall mounted TV. Off of the master you will find a private head which includes a full size shower and cherry floors.

VIP Stateroom

The VIP located forward is appointed much like the master. It is equipped with an island queen berth, 15" flat panel wall mounted TV, portholes for natural light, a walk in closet with room to hang clothes and built in shelves, as well as a private entrance to the guest head.

Starboard Guest Stateroom

Located between the master and the VIP you will find a stateroom with two twin berths, this stateroom also offers a flat panel TV, a port hole for natural light, and shares the guest head with the VIP.

Fly Bridge

Her fly bridge is the epicenter of outdoor entertainment, laid out with tons of built in seating and an oversized sun pad, a 17" flat panel TV mounted to the arch, a new Clarion stereo with six (6) JL audio speakers. There is also a Gaggenau bbq grill and wet bar with a sink as well as custom icebox for added cold beverage storage. The current owner also had additional custom removable seating fabricated for the aft section of the fly bridge. When this seating is removed it makes room for a tender to be hoisted up by the davit.
