DETAILED INFORMATION

2014 Privilege Marine Series 5

With a modern design, the illuminated cockpit offers many choices: a flexible and friendly outside living area: comfortable dining area for 8 persons with a table and squared seating, a removable corner seat, additional lounge area with convertible coffee table or outside kitchenette. The helm station gives an elevated view of all the deck and cockpit areas for ease of sailing and socializing.

With one level living, the saloon is an extension to the cockpit offering a large living area. The galley up opens to the saloon, which gives a friendly atmosphere: large seating spaces, excellent storage areas, double sink, bar style bench, chart table within easy access to the helm station and the dining area is generous and very comfortable with large square seating, convertible table and always a view to the sea.

Layouts: Owners, 4 Cabin or Family versions

Owners Version: The owner's cabin is a real bedroom over 20 feet wide which is unique on a catamaran. A king bed, with two private access, one to the head with separate shower and the other to the dressing table, dressing room and storage. Ventilation is optimized with the portholes on the side and deck hatches. Light and airy, the view from the cabin during your cruise is open and vast.
