Overview

This 2005 28' B&D Custom Center Console is stunning from the word go. She is powered by twin 250hp Mercury Verados and have less than 200 hours. Rigged with features such as a marine head w/ holding tank, forward seating with storage underneath, two live wells, full curtain enclosure and great electronics, it is easy to see why your whole crew can enjoy what ever the day may bring. This B&D is without a doubt one of the cleanest on the market and I am sure you will feel the same way once you are on board. Call today for complete specs and full details. She has been priced to sell so don't wait. She won't be on the market long.
