Overview

NEW, NEW, NEW! This yacht has been lightly used for 215 hours of island commuting but her owners never cooked, fished, slept aboard, or even used the fridge which is still wrapped in the new plastic. There is a second 'get home' Yamaha trolling motor with cockpit controls which is new in 2013!

This yacht is fresh and sparkling, ready for your summer fun. The asking price includes a heavy duty double axle galvanized trailer, dual heat systems and diesel cooktop, Furuno nav gear plus, plus, plus! The Orca is a rugged sportfisher built for the Pacific Northwest boater to provide plenty of indoor and cockpit space plus a ton of stowage.

Step aboard at the full width swim platform and enjoy the spacious 6'3" headroom, full inside steering station with quality navigation and XM Satellite sound system, deluxe berth plus a convertible dinette, and a well-engineered head and shower compartment. There is an electric windlass with helm controls. Other upgrades include electric downriggers, deck flood lights, dual heat systems, new fenders and lines plus a full cockpit storage cover. This yacht has been very lightly used and shows like new. Call today for appointment!
