DETAILED INFORMATION

Accommodations

Ragamuffin has a comfortable, open cockpit with plenty of room for the captain and crew. The canvas suncover provides shade for hot summer cruising.

As you step into the cabin, the galley is to port and the chart table and quarter berth is to starboard. On the side of the chart table are two drawers for storing charts and equipment, and a built-in trash compartment. The main salon has two straight settees. The starboard settee converts to a double berth, and between the port and starboard settees is a dropleaf table. Towards the bow to starboard is an enclosed head with toilet, shower, sink, and vanity. To port is a hanging locker.

The forward stateroom has a large double V-berth with center cushion. A teak door provides privacy from the main salon, and there is also storage below under the V-berth.

The cabin interior is finished with accented teak, and there is a teak and holly sole throughout. Ragamuffin sleeps 5-6 comfortably, and there is 6' 2" of headroom.
