ACCOMMODATIONS

The Symbol 44 is an altogether comfortable yacht beginning with the sundeck that can be easily boarded from the swim platform. The sundeck includes a refrigerator, sink, lots of storage, space for a table and chairs and access to the flybridge, side decks and salon.

The flybridge helm station has all the right equipment, helm seat, bench guest seating and is fully enclosed.

Three steps down into the salon brings you to the heart of the accommodations. Couches, TV, coffee table, breakfast bar and plenty of storage.

The galley is down three steps to starboard, opposite a large square dinette that seats 6-8 on settees on three sides. The refrigerator/freezer unit and huge pantry are adjacent to the galley.

The forward head is to port including a separate shower stall and separate access from the salon and forward cabin.

And the master cabin aft is equally terrific. There is a queen centerline bed, counter with dressing table to port, counter with drawers and a huge twin hanging locker to starboard. The en-suite head is quite spacious and includes a separate shower stall with a bi-fold teak trimmed lexan door.

MAIN SALON

The main salon is the below decks social center affording visual connection with the folks in the galley and the dinette area. Two couches, coffee table, TV, large windows with blinds, many storage cabinets all add to the livability of this area.

Storage console forward to starboard w/storage below. Mounted are a Garmin 168 GPS and Icom VHF.

An inverter (1800) is mounted on the far portside end of the breakfast bar.
