Overview

Entering SEA DREAMS (ex. Life's Finest) from the passerelle, you step onto the teak covered aft deck, with a large U-shaped settee aft, two varnished tables and six loose chairs for comfortably accommodating 10.

Moving forward, you step into a warm, rich main salon. With her new light colored soft goods blending with her dark satin finished mahogany woodwork, this area invites extended relaxation. The salon opens into the dining area forward and slightly to port. The same blend of soft fabrics and rich woods carries throughout the yacht.

Moving forward on the main deck, along the starboard side, you pass the day head and continue into the master suite. Again, you are surrounded by the stunning satin finished woods and joinery work of the Pacific Northwest. There is a large en suite master bath with shower and separate tub. This area is set off by a beautiful blend of marble, wood and tile. There is a large walk in closet in the master stateroom.

Below the main deck, there are three queen staterooms and a twin bedded stateroom - all with en suite baths. This area carries through with the dark woods and light fabrics.

Moving up to the bridge deck, you have the large wheelhouse forward with settees port and starboard and excellent visibility. Going aft you step into the sky lounge with a comfortable seating area to port including a large overstuffed sofa and two occasional chairs. There is a beautiful marble covered bar to starboard with three comfortable bar chairs and a large flat screen TV on the forward bulkhead. There is another day head forward of this area. Moving aft through the double pocketed doors, you step out onto the large aft deck. With the tender removed, this becomes a sizeable entertainment area including alfresco dining, multiple lounge chairs and considerable space for the exercise bike and a barbecue grill. This area is teak covered.

Next, we move up to the sundeck complete with Jacuzzi aft, helm station forward and comfortable seating in between. SEA DREAMS offers three separate outdoor spaces to enjoy the open air and sea.
