Overview

---

This custom yacht offers the styling and workmanship of a custom build with the combined expertise of a name brand manufacturer. Actually launched in 2007, this Westship was built to higher standards from the beginning and had surveyor supervision throughout the process.

Starting with an Evan Marshall design, the finished layout reflected the specific requirements of one and ONLY one owner. From formal to casual dining options to a salon that utilizes every inch of her nearly 26' beam, PRESTIGE LADY offers the room, visibility, and comfort that are the accepted requirements for extended periods of time on board.

Remarks

PRESTIGE LADY is a custom build at Westship West World Yachts in Tampa, Florida. Launched in 2007, this magnificent 110' Raised Pilothouse Yacht immediately started her cruising journey. The performance and sea trials proved to be beyond projected expectations. Her wide beam affords for easy walk around decks with no sacrifice to her interior appointments. Beautifully decorated, the forward end of the main salon features a soffit ceiling about a circular dining table for up to 8 resting on its own circular stone flooring. Forward from there is a professionally laid out galley with its own second dining table (again, circular) positioned behind the stairway to the crew quarters. Accommodations for 6 in three staterooms (guest cabins) just forward of the owners full-width Master Stateroom. Stately appointed with special attention to the details, PRESTIGE LADY offers no compromises!

Exclusions

Owner's personal belongings.
