Cockpit & Helm

The navigation and control systems on the vessel are designed and built for ruggedness and redundancy. The two E-120's are independent and there are also two independent GPS sensor heads so there is 100% redundancy. As a backup there is a digital compass on a separate circuit. Engine controls are full-authority digital (FADEC) style single levers.

- (4) kw radar 150 mile range.
- (2) kw sonar.
- KVH Azimuth 1000 digital compass.
